ACCREDITATION

ACCREDITATION OVERVIEW

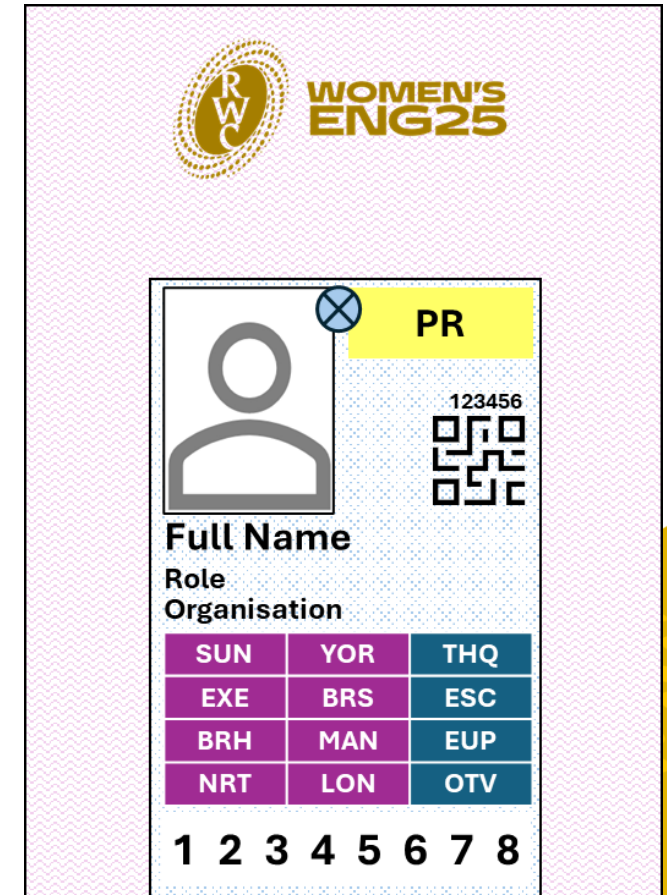

- Accreditation contributes to the safety and security of the tournament.
- The Tournament Accreditation Pass (TAP) establishes the identity of the bearer and determines the venue/s and zone/s to which the bearer has access.
- It is a non-transferable device.

Things to DO:

- Show your accreditation to the member of staff at an access control point into a venue or zone
- Remember your accreditation for all RWC 2025 matches and activities
- Keep the official tournament lanyard attached to your accreditation at all times

Please DO NOT:

- Discard your tournament accreditation until the end of the tournament, irrespective of one's role.
- Have your accreditation showing in photos
- Share images of your accreditation with friends and family or on social media.

ACCREDITATION COLLECTION REQUIREMENTS

- To collect your Tournament Accreditation Pass (TAP) from a Venue Accreditation Centre (VAC), you must present the physical photo ID you submitted with your accreditation application.
- The table to the right determines the list of acceptable forms of ID to present on collection, based on your nationality.

United Kingdom Nationals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passport • UK driving license (UK Provisional accepted) • UK Birth Certificate (issued within 6 weeks of birth) AND a proof of address (see 'Proof of address' information below)
