

MEN'S RUGBY WORLD CUP 2027 ANNOUNCEMENT: MATCH SCHEDULE REVEAL

MEDIA ADVISORY – VISION AND PHOTO OPPORTUNITY

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA: World Rugby will officially unveil the full match schedule for Men's Rugby World Cup 2027 in Australia, giving fans and media worldwide their first look at where and when their teams will play and enabling them to start planning their Rugby World Cup experience across Australia's seven host cities: Sydney, Brisbane, Melbourne, Perth, Adelaide, Townsville and Newcastle.

The announcement is set to generate global excitement and positive buzz, highlighting the scale of the tournament and the unique experiences each host city will offer. Key spokespeople, including World Rugby Chair Brett Robinson, Rugby World Cup legend John Eales, and Wallabies captain Harry Wilson, will provide insights and take questions from the media.

Fans are encouraged to register for Presale tickets ahead of 18 February, ensuring they don't miss their chance to be part of this once in a generation sporting event.
